The real issue with Ilford:-

Regarding the recent town planning implementation that are going to be initiated and totally pointless. However, these are SAMPLE of photos that a endemic, chronic problem which as stagnated over Ilford for a long time now.

Ilford, is a very impoverished place consider it was a gem, middle class area back in mid eighties, nineties and prior to that.

Now, is just a scum of a place litter every where, anti social and drugs issues, begging name the few and why on earth they are so many baseless shops sprung up in Ilford.

Majority of them all food retail and parlour shops which only exacerbates litter and food stains on side walks.

Folly/farcical of a town.
