

Education sessions for schools

Redbridge Museum delivers a wide range of schools education sessions linked to the National Curriculum. All sessions include object handling, activities and worksheets.

Museum staff can also support special projects and outreach work.

A range of school education sessions are also delivered at Valentines Mansion.

For more information visit www.redbridge.gov.uk/museum

How to find us

Transport

- Train: Ilford
- Bus: 25, 86, 123, 128, 145, 147, 150, 167, 169, 179, 364, 366, 462, W19
- Parking: Ilford town centre

Access

- Automatic doors and lift
- Object touch trail with Braille and large print labels
- Audio points & transcriptions

Open

Tuesday to Friday 10am-5pm

Saturdays 10am-4pm

Closed Sundays and Mondays

Admission is FREE

Redbridge Museum

2nd Floor, Redbridge Central Library,
Clements Road, Ilford, Essex IG1 1EA
020 8708 2317

redbridge.museum@visionrcl.org.uk www.redbridge.gov.uk/museum

Redbridge Museum

...discover 150,000 years
of your history

Redbridge Museum

Redbridge Museum explores the many different places, people and events in over 150,000 years of Redbridge history.

Find out about Redbridge's hidden past in the multimedia Time Zone

Listen to sounds and voices from the past and present

Join in the Children's Trail and use all your senses

And much, much more...

What's in Redbridge Museum

Moving Stories

Meet some of the people who have lived and worked in Redbridge between 1940 and today

The March of Bricks and Mortar

Discover how Redbridge grew from 1900 to the 1930s

Rural Redbridge

Find out what life was like in the 1800s

Time Zone

Explore over 150,000 years of local history through interactive touch screens

Museum Events

The Museum runs events and activities for all ages

- Holiday activities for children and families
- Community heritage projects
- ESOL sessions
- Outreach

New Displays

The Museum delivers a major temporary exhibition programme in the 1st Floor Exhibition Area.

In addition, the 'Your Story' display in the main Museum is a space for you to tell your own story. If you have items to donate or a story to tell please contact us.

